Tuesday – November 16, 2021

The meeting was opened at 7:00 pm by Donnie Brown, Band Booster President.

Handouts at meeting: October Minutes and Financial Report

From Donnie Brown: President

- Welcome
- Thanks to everyone for an AWESOME Trunk or Treat. Biggest one yet.
- Competition Recap
  - Finished 6th place at BOA Johnson City, TN
  - Finished 5th place at State
  - Decent finish coming off a Covid year
- Weekly updates will be slower due to marching season conclusion. Will send updates as they happen.
- 2A/4A Recap
  - Very successful this year. Thank you to everyone who participated.
  - We received many compliments that people loved coming to BSHS for competitions.
  - Bidding is going on for next year's location.
- First of the year fundraisers: Boston Butt (paperwork going out first week of school) and 3rd Annual March to Greatness Car Show in March
- BS Christmas Parade 12/04/21 at 10 am. There will be a parade rehearsal after school on 12/2. We are not participating in the Spartanburg Christmas parade.
- Proofs for band pictures are online at JRich photos.
- Going to court in January about our Pioneer. Asking for restitution.
- Will pass out information about Spring concerts as we get them
- Want to improve our band culture. Help connect with new parents by having a new parent orientation.
- Want more people involved with parent volunteering. We want to create a community within the different band sections (a section parent to coordinate). Directors want to focus on band parents. More communication within the middle schools. Need an army of parents on board. Proud of the growth we have had.
